THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS

Mrs. D.C. Blair
Montour Falls
New York.

15 February, 1917.
P. J.

Dearest Mutter,

The laundry + cookies just dropped in. Now, I never knew so opportune an arrival. I was lazy, lonesome, and famished.
Now I feel lots better.

That being is a new one, isn't it? Well, I never tasted such good cookies. I am afraid my friends aren't going to get many.

I don't know yet when Blanche is coming as she hasn't written since the letter that merely said she was coming. I remember telling her once that I liked surprises, so perhaps she will drop in on me some day.
I envy Ethel - just think of her seeing my family. Love, Emma.
